PREAMBLE—

The Registrar of Co-operative Societies explaining the difficulties in securing loans by Co-operative Farming Societies for construction of irrigation wells under the existing rules, has suggested certain amendments to the rules issued in Government Order cited at (1) above to facilitate the Co-operative Farming Societies to get loans for the above purpose without insisting upon landed security.

ORDER No. DPC 460 CCS 68, BANGALORE, DATED THE 19TH DECEMBER 1968.

Having considered the proposals of the Registrar of Co-operative Societies, Government direct that the Government Orders read above be amended as follows so as to enable the Co-operative Farming Societies to secure loans under the well scheme without insisting upon the landed security :

I. In the annexure to G. O. No. DPC 209 CLS 64, dated 14th October 1965, relating to sanction of loans for construction of irrigation wells, after rule 6 (iv), the following clause shall be added :

"(iv) (a) In case of Co-operative Farming Societies, the loan may be sanctioned by creating floating charge on the wells to be constructed on the lands of the society without insisting upon the landed security."

By Order and in the name of the Governor of Mysore,

S. V. PRABHU,
Under Secretary to Government,
